Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno (YKSUG) is the largest regional university in Belarus. YKSUG’s mission is to provide quality education, research, and innovation in various fields of science. The University Quality Management System meets requirements of International Standards.

Grodno State Agrarian University was established in 1910. It has 8 faculties to offer the specialists, MSc, PhD programs in 13 specialties corresponding to the emerging needs of economics, engineering technology and agriculture. The current enrollment of students is 6,000. The top scientific priorities are biotechnology, selective breeding of agricultural plants and livestock, veterinary medicine.

Svetlana Mazurak, mgar.gipug@yandex.ru

Belarusian State University is a leading scientific, educational, innovation and cultural centre of the Republic of Belarus. It exercises its potential which is based on the best domestic and international experience in the humanities, natural sciences, social and cultural demands and interests of the individual, society and state.

Vadim Reznikov, reznikov@bgu.by

The University of Tartu is Estonia’s leading academic and research institution. As the nation’s only classical university, UT covers a wide variety of disciplines. The University’s mission is to preserve and promote Estonian culture by conducting internationally recognized research and providing world-class research-based higher education.

Aires Lepo, aires@ut.ee

Estonia University of Life Sciences is to guarantee sustainable use of natural resources and enhance rural development. Estonian University of Life Sciences is the only university in Estonia whose priorities in academic and research activities provide the sustainable development of natural resources necessary for the existence of Man as well as the preservation of heritage and habitats.

Estonia

Latvia University of Agriculture is the only higher agricultural education establishment in Latvia and it aims to promote intellectual potential for rural development; encourage people to acquire high academic and professional education; develop research; contribute to the cultural development; study, materials and perfect the gained experience and pass it on to the future generations.

ADVISOR: Birgit Uhrinetti, birgit.uhrinnetti@lu.lv

Riga Technical University is a stable stronghold of the development of engineering sciences in Latvia. Advanced teaching methods and new technologies provide RTU with a wide range of knowledge, ensuring research excellence and high quality studies. RTU is to become one of the leading universities in consolidating the research community in Latvia and worldwide.

Advisory: Athena Jurzepa, polponja.jurzepa@rtu.lv

The University of Latvia is the largest higher education institution of Latvia. It concentrates the leading scientific and research potential of the academic universities of Latvia in natural sciences, humanities and social sciences. The UL development goal is to become a world-class research centre at the same time providing research-based and innovative studies in a wide spectrum of sciences.

Advisors: Alīsa G.Robova; alisa@gbv.lv

More Information

UWM Secretariat
University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn
Oczapowskiego str. 2, 10-719 Olsztyn, POLAND
Phone: +48 89 523 39 26
e-mail: bsrun@uwom.edu.pl

UNECO Secretariat
Saint Petersburg State University of Economics
Sadovo str. 21, 19102 Saint Petersburg, RUSSIA
Phone: +7 812 458 9730 EKT: 2833
e-mail: bsrun@uneco.net

www.bsrun.org
Kazan University is the largest technical university in the Baltic States. Being one of the dynamic schools of higher education in Lithuania, it often becomes a focus of study abroad choices. From its earliest beginnings, in 1582, the University has developed into a major institution, providing education and research for the highest European and international standards to offer world-class education and research experience to students.

SoSor University. Vilnius University is the oldest university in the Baltic States. It is a comprehensive university where a variety of research and studies is the foundation of its overall activity. The University aims to distinguish itself by a broad spectrum of fundamental and applied research, as well as international excellence in the interdisciplinary research.

The Medical University of Gdansk provides education to over 6,000 students, Ph.D. and postgraduate students. The university conducts clinical, research, and social welfare activities. The university offers two degree programs: Medicine Doctor and Master of Pharmacy. MUUS offers also Preclinical Course and English Language Course. MUUS provides Ph.D. in Medicine for International Students and Ph.D. in Pharmaceutical Sciences for International Students. The main areas of research include: utilization of synthetic and natural drugs and clinical treatments that would revolutionize current theories of numerous diseases and improve existing treatments.

University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn is the largest academic institution in North-Eastern Poland. The university has more than 20,000 students, with the aim of educating highly qualified graduates and scientific staff, to carry out scientific research, responding to the needs of the region's economy and to enrich the national culture. Over 30,000 students of the university are studying at 15 faculties, 33 departments, and 20 academic majors.

The Warsaw School of Economics is the oldest and largest economy-related institution in Poland. It seeks to impart a global dimension to its academic activity through a combination of an over 100-year tradition with engagement in the contemporary world and the profound challenges, guided by respect for the tradition and usefulness to society.

University of Warsaw, established in 1764, from its beginning played a significant role in the intellectual, political and cultural life of Poland. It has been recognized throughout the world as an academic centre in Central Europe. UWF offers degrees programmes at bachelor, master & doctoral level, including several taught in English. Numerous courses in foreign languages.

Kazan State University is one of the largest institutions in Russia. The university aims to become a key centre of higher education and research excellence in the region. The University offers a wide range of academic programs and conducts cutting-edge research in various fields, including the natural sciences, humanities, and social sciences.

The Herzen State Pedagogical University of Russia was founded in 1839 in St. Petersburg. Herzen University is one of the largest scientific, educational, and cultural centres, the recognized leader of Russian education.

Saint Petersburg State University is the oldest institution of higher education in Russia. During its 350 years of its academic life, and research, and being one of the first institutions of higher education in Russia in its it's history, it continues to be one of the best places of higher education in Russia.

Yaroslavl-Volzhskiy Nizhny Novgorod State University is one of the key universities in Nizhny Novgorod region. Its mission is to be one of the centers of development of Russian education and science, to promote the social and cultural development of the regional community through teaching and research in humanities, social sciences, economics, engineering and other fields.

North West Institute of Management - the branch of the Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration represents the Centre for Management Education and Training, working in the field of training public and municipal managers in St. Petersburg, the city with the highest concentration of government business, provides practical guidance to reform the state and municipal management systems and social-economic sphere.