Statement of the University Authorities of the Medical University of Gdańsk

In light of the recent tragic events that took place in Prague, we would like to express our deepest sympathy to the entire Academic Community of our partner Charles University.

The Medical University of Gdańsk academic community offers sincerest condolences to its Czech friends and colleagues. We extend our special sympathy to the families and loved ones of the victims of all those affected. At the same time, we express our solidarity with the Academic Community of Charles University in Prague. The Medical University of Gdańsk expresses its firm opposition to any form of violence. We join in deep pain at this difficult time.

Prof. Dr. Habil. Marcin Gruchala

Rector of the Medical University of Gdańsk
